SAPD Makes Arrest in Robbery Case Where Suspects Injured SAPD Officer With Vehicle

The San Antonio Police Department has arrested one of two suspects involved in an aggravated robbery (70-678926) that occurred on Sunday, September 2nd, in the 3000 block of Fredericksburg Rd, at a convenience store.

Roy Gomez, DOB: 10-30-85, was arrested on Tuesday, September 11th, without incident at his home in the 1500 block of W. Lullwood. The second suspect remains at large.

During the course of the robbery, the two suspects fled in a vehicle. As they fled, they struck Officer Noel Pineda (70-678787), dragging him several feet on the hood of their vehicle before turning, sending Officer Pineda flying off of the hood.

Police need your help in providing information on the second suspect involved in this incident.

If anyone has information on the identity of the second suspect, you are urged to call SAPD 207-8299.

SAPD Case #'s 70-678926 and 70-678787 will be faxed
